WILLIAM MURDOCK

Mid-Ohio Regional Planning Commission

As Mid-Ohio Regional Planning Commission’s (MORPC) executive director, William Murdock, AICP, is responsible for the overall management of the agency including structure, personnel, finance and the implementation of policies and programs. He also represents MORPC before a variety of government, business and stakeholder organizations across the region, state and nation.

Murdock brings knowledge and expertise in the areas of community services, urban planning and redevelopment, which is critical as MORPC continues to grow and adapt to the changing needs of the region. His focus on strengthening MORPC’s core services, partnered with his experience, innovative spirit and integrity, will amplify the voices of MORPC members and take their work to the next level.

Murdock most recently served as the chief of community services at the Ohio Development Services Agency, where he led the state’s community programs, incentives and investments, with an emphasis on redevelopment, energy efficiency, infrastructure and services to individuals and communities in need. He also had previously served as director of urban development for the Ohio Department of Development, focused on key statewide programs for ‘brown-field’ redevelopment and historic preservation. From 2005 to 2008, Murdock was deputy director of planning and development for the city of Gahanna, where he led economic development incentives, urban planning, building and zoning services, code enforcement and redevelopment projects for the city. Prior to his role as deputy director, Murdock served as a senior planner for the city of Gahanna.

Time to tee it up ...

Our next golf outing will be Wednesday, July 27, at Hickory Hills Golf Club. We have 2 confirmed tee times, at 1:30 p.m. and 1:40 p.m. The cost is $45 person, and that includes a golf cart (that's a great deal!). This is always a popular venue for a golf outing, so let me or Tom Christman (tchristman@ohioexterminating.com) or Mike Becker (mbecker@beckerlilly.com) know as soon as possible if you can make it. You are also invited to join us for lunch prior to teeing off.

Kiwanis One Day moved to fall ...

In an effort to align the worldwide Kiwanis One Day with "Make A Difference Day," the Kiwanis International Board has decided to move Kiwanis One Day from its former spring date, to the 4th Saturday in October.

USA Weekend magazine, in partnership with the Points of Light Foundation, sponsors "Make A Difference Day" for people to volunteer and make a difference in their communities. Kiwanis One Day is similar in nature, and calls on all Kiwanis family member organizations to work together on a single day for the good of their local community.

How it works ...

I told my son, "You will marry the girl I choose." He said, "No." I told him, "She is Bill Gates' daughter." He said, "Okay."

I called Bill Gates and said, "I want your daughter to marry my son." Bill Gates said, "No." I told Bill Gates, "My son is the CEO of World Bank." Bill Gates said, "Okay."

I called the president of World Bank and asked him to make my son the CEO. He said, "No." I told him, "My son is Bill Gates' son-in-law." He said, "Okay."

This is exactly how politics works ...

The way we were ...

As we proceed through our centennial year, we continue to take a 'look back' to see where we have come from. Part of that process is to have some fun with childhood photos and trying to identify Club members in their early days. Some have aged well and are easy to identify, while others seem to take on entirely new features.

To the right is our next entry. Can you identify the Kiwanis member highlighted in this photo? The first five people to successfully identify this childhood photo will have their names entered into a drawing for a free Kiwanis lunch at a Monday meeting.

This is the second week we have run this photo, and we do not yet have five successful guesses. Here is the hint we provided last week: His college nickname was "The Midnight Barber." This week's hint is: He hails from the same hometown as Jerry Seinfeld (comedian), the Baldwin Brothers (actors) and Brian Kilmeade (Fox News).

There is no limit to the number of guesses you can submit, but please, only one name at a time. You will be notified whether or not your guess is correct. All guesses should be submitted to Club Secretary Paul Bohlman.

Take me out to the ball game ...

Baseball, the great American pastime -- and what better way is there to enjoy a mid-summer afternoon than sitting along the third-base line of Huntington Park watching the Columbus Clippers play ball?

On Wednesday, August 17, you'll have the opportunity to experience that feeling first-hand, as members of Kiwanis Club of Columbus and their guests head to Huntington Park to watch our hometown Columbus Clippers take on the Durham Bulls.

The first pitch will be thrown at 12:05 p.m. – yep, right smack in the middle of the work day. It is the perfect time to slip away for a loooooong lunch, grab a couple of hot dogs and maybe a cold beer or two? Work will still be there when you get back later that afternoon or perhaps the next day. It's a great opportunity to spend some quality time with your kids, your grandkids, your special someone or perhaps even some co-workers.

We have a reserved a block of seats in Section 19, along the third-base line, at a group rate of $13 per person. Please get your order in to Past President Scott Lindsey at slindsey@lindseylaw.com or 614-425-2483 by this Monday, August 8 -- the sooner the better, so we can get a larger block, if necessary.

Ohio District Kiwanis Convention is coming soon!

The annual Ohio District Kiwanis Convention will be held August 12-14, at Great Wolf Lodge in Mason, Ohio. The resort is adjacent to King's Island, The Beach Waterpark and many other local attractions.

Come early to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Cincinnati Kiwanis Club with the Centennial Riverboat Cruise Thursday evening. In addition to the Saturday workshops and House of Delegates meeting, there will be a Kiwanis Family Carnival/Picnic on Friday night, visitors from the Cincinnati Zoo, programming for non-Kiwanis family and friends and much, much more! The convention will conclude with the installation of our new Kiwanis Governor and Board during the Sunday brunch.

You can register on line at the District website – www.ohiokiwani.org.

Win up to 15 free lunches ...

They say there is no such thing as a 'free lunch,' but perhaps 'they' are wrong. As a member of Kiwanis Club of Columbus, you have an opportunity to win up to 15 free Monday lunches – yes, FREE.

The 2016 Kiwanis Charity Regatta is scheduled for 11:30 a.m. Monday, August 29, at the Columbus Metropolitan Library, located at 96 South. Grant Avenue. We are Again giving members the opportunity to ask your friends, family members, co-workers and clients to support the Columbus Kiwanis Foundation by making a tax-deductible, on line contribution.

Using bulk e-mail, simply send those in your e-mail address book the link to our official Regatta website - www.columbuscorporateregatta.org, direct them to the "donate" tab and have them make a secure, on line contribution. They should also be instructed to insert your name as the Kiwanis member who invited them to participate.

The Kiwanis member who raises the most on line dollars prior to August 29, will win a free lunch from the date of the Regatta, through the end of the 2016 calendar year. That's a potential of 15 meals, if you attend every week.

If you need help crafting an e-mail to invite your contacts to participate, please let us know. If you would prefer to contact them via U.S. mail, we would be happy to assist you by providing a customized letter, printing it and mailing it on your behalf. All you need to do is provide a list of the names and addresses of those you wish to ask.

The website has several suggested giving levels for them to consider, or they can pick a dollar amount they are more comfortable with. But the key is, you have to ask. We know for a fact that 100 percent of the people you don't ask will not contribute. But, if you ask 20 people to support you and five of them do so, we are that much closer to raising the funds we need to support our 2016-17 scholarships and grants, and you are that much closer to eating for free.

Why not send a note out today?

'Shred-it' Day ...

Twenty years ago, experts predicted that the advent of the computer would lead us to become a 'paperless' society. While it is true that we don't utilize paper like we used to, there is little evidence that we use paper less.

We all have boxes of old tax records, bank statements, financial reports and other sensitive documents we would not want to have fall into the hands of an unscrupulous identity thief. That is why the WCMH-TV4 'Shred-it' Day is so critical, and so well received, by the general public in central Ohio.

The next 'Shred-it' Day is set for Saturday, August 20, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. It will again be held in the parking lot behind Mapfre Stadium (off of I-71, north of the state fairgrounds). Kiwanis has committed to supplying 20 volunteers for each of the three shifts starting at 7:30 a.m., 10 a.m., and noon respectively.

This is a great hands-on service project. You are welcome to bring your spouse, teenage children, co-workers and friends. If you are interested in signing up, contact Scott Doellinger at scottjd714@wowway.com.

Q. What do bulletproof vests, fire escapes, windshield wipers and laser printers have in common?

A. All were invented by women.

Buckeye ticket raffle ...

As the 2016 Ohio State football season nears, the excitement is growing, and so is the opportunity to sell raffle tickets.

There is still time for an organization you are involved with (scout troop, 4H Club, church group, etc.) to sign up and to sell raffle tickets. Tickets sell for $5 each and the winner will receive two tickets to each of this year's seven

Ohio State home games.

Partner organizations can earn $3 of every sale, with the remaining $2 going to the Columbus Kiwanis Foundation. There is no upfront investment on their part, just a commitment to sell the tickets and turn in the money, along with the ticket stubs, prior to August 19.

Club members are also encouraged to sell tickets to friends, co-workers and business associates. Tickets sold by Club members have the added advantage of having all $5 of the sale going to the Columbus Kiwanis Foundation.

Contact Paul Bohlman for a supply of raffle tickets.
