Ron Cook recognized ...

Past Club President Ron Cook has been awarded the Laurette Goldberg Award for 2016 by Early Music America for "outstanding achievement in outreach and/or educational projects for children or adults by ensembles and individual artists." The Laurette Goldber Award is named for Laurette Goldberg, a teacher, performer, author and founder of musical enterprises in the San Francisco Bay area.

"I was surprised and delighted to learn I am to receive the Laurette Goldberg Award from Early Music America. My entire working life as a lawyer has involved devoting all the time I can muster to studying, performing, teaching, and lecturing and writing about early music and instruments. At the same time, I have devoted countless hours participating in and providing leadership to a variety of early music organizations that produce early music events and support various segments of the early music field. All of this has been a labor of love and an incredible privilege. To receive an award for engaging in the activities I have so enjoyed is certainly an unexpected bonus," Ron said.

Ron is a frequent speaker and writer on early music topics, with an emphasis on the historical harp and on performance of the lais of Marie de France. He has taught recorder at workshops and as an adjunct instructor at the Conservatory of Music at Capital University, and he has appeared as a recorder soloist with a variety of ensembles. He also continues to perform on historical harps at locations throughout the United States, and has taught historical harp at the national Historical Harp Workshop.

Ron was one of the founders of the Early Music in Columbus concert series and has been continuously active in its operation. He is a past director and treasurer of The American Recorder Society, past president of The Historical Harp Society and past president of Early Music America. He has chaired the boards of a number of Columbus arts organizations, including the Greater Columbus Arts Council, the Pro Musica Orchestra and the Friends of Early Music (the sponsor, with Capital University, of the Early Music in Columbus concert series).

Still time to volunteer ...

We are still in need of volunteers to help staff the beverage tents at this year's Columbus Arts Festival scheduled for the weekend of June 10, 11 & 12. Our Club will receive 10 percent of all of the sales made from our tents, so having ample coverage and expedient service is imperative. People migrate to stands where there are no lines and where they can get quick and friendly service.

Each volunteer shift is three hours in length, and there is no limit as to how many shifts, and/or days, you can work. To be eligible to volunteer, you must first attend a training session at Superior Beverage (871 Michigan Avenue). If you were trained last year, you do not need to be trained again this year, as training is valid for 24 months. There are only two training sessions remaining - Thursday evening, May 12, at 6:30 p.m. and Tuesday evening, May 24, at 6:30 p.m. You must be registered to attend, so that they know you are coming. You can register by clicking on this site (<http://doodle.com/poll/7mydkcvxgegpvqzf>), entering your name and placing a check mark in the column of the date you will be attending.

If you have already been trained, or when you have signed up for training, you can then select the shift(s) you would like to work. From the "Activity Calendar" on our website (www.columbuskiwanis.org), click on either one of the June 10, 11 or 12 dates. You will see a link for more information. By clicking on that link, you will see the sign-up schedule. Just place your name, e-mail address and phone number in the time slot(s) you would like to work.

This is always a fun event, and you get to work side-by-side with fellow Kiwanians, getting to know them better. By the way, spouses, adult children and friends are welcome to volunteer with you. Why not ask them along?

Let us know ...

Have you recently changed jobs, been promoted, received an award, welcomed a new child or grandchild into the family? If so, your fellow Kiwanians would like to know and would like to be able to congratulate you.

The best way to get the word out is through our weekly newsletter, or through the weekly "Happy Dollar" announcements at our Monday meetings. An article about your 'life event' can be submitted to newsletter editor Paul Bohlman for publication in the newsletter. Don't worry too much about your writing skills; just focus on making sure the facts are accurate. Paul and his team of editors will take care of the grammar, punctuation and spelling.

The way we were ...

As we get closer to our Centennial Celebration and continue to look into the photographic past of our members, we present you with this challenging photo.

The first five people to successfully identify the subject of this photo will have their names entered into a Drawing for a free Kiwanis luncheon. There is no limit on the number of entries, but please, only one name submitted at a time. All entries should be sent to Club Secretary Paul Bohlman.

Here is a clue about this week's photo: An early reader, I still enjoy reading financial reports & fashion magazines.

I have a condition that prevents me from going on a diet ... I get hungry!

Wait staff tip ...

Several times throughout the year, and again during the holiday season, we provide our members with an opportunity to make a contribution to a special fund we set aside to recognize our wait staff at the ACC. The total collected throughout the year is presented during our last meeting in December.

This is our way of thanking the staff for their hard work throughout the year. While our weekly luncheon fee includes a small tip, those funds are shared with the entire ACC wait staff. Our Holiday bonus program will go entirely to those who serve Kiwanis.

We will conduct one of our periodic collections this Monday, May 2. Collection envelopes will be on your table. Once everyone has had an opportunity to contribute, please return the envelope to Club Secretary Paul Bohlman. Please note that this is a voluntary effort, and there is no set dollar amount.

Centennial deadline is here ...

The ticket deadline for our upcoming May 7 Centennial Celebration has passed, and preliminary numbers have been given to the caterer and others. However, we still have a day or two to fine tune the count and thus you have a final opportunity to buy your tickets, if you have not already done so. We absolutely, positively must have all reservations finalized by 10 a.m. on Friday, April 29.

Summer travel plans, where should I go?

As summer approaches, it is time to start pinning down plans for my annual summer vacation. But there are so many places that it is hard to decide.

I have already been in many places, but I've never been in Cahoots. Apparently, you can't go alone. You have to be in Cahoots with someone.

I've also never been in Cognito. I hear no one recognizes you there. I have, however, been in Sane. They don't have an airport. You have to be driven there. I have made several trips there, thanks to my children, friends, family and work.

I would like to go to Conclusions, but you have to jump, and I'm not too much on physical activity anymore. I have also been in Doubt. That is a sad place to visit, and I try not to go there too often.

I've been in Flexible, but only when it was very important to stand firm. Sometimes I'm in Capable. I go there more often as I'm getting older.

One of my favorite places to be is in Suspense! It really gets the adrenaline flowing and pumps up the old heart! At my age, I need all the stimuli I can get!

I may have been in Continent, but I don't remember what country I was in. It's an age thing. They tell me it is very wet and damp there.

Giant Eagle gift cards help our Club ...

Each time you utilize a Giant Eagle gift card purchased through Kiwanis, you are helping our Club avoid raising annual membership dues. Plus, shopping with a Giant Eagle gift card is absolutely free! Don't you just love that word?

When you purchase a $100 Giant Eagle gift card through Kiwanis, it is as good as having $100 in cash when you go shopping at Giant Eagle or when you fill up your car at Get Go. There are no hidden fees or charges. A $100 Giant Eagle gift card gives you $100 of purchasing power, while allowing you to earn Fuel Perks, like you normally would. The difference, however, is that Giant Eagle contributes 5 percent of each Giant Eagle gift card we sell. So that $100 gift card will generate a $5 donation to Kiwanis.

To purchase your Giant Eagle gift card, please see Club Secretary Paul Bohlman. He retains a supply of $100 gift cards, and can special-order other denominations upon request.
