Pete Hanson

Ohio State University Men's Volleyball Coach

Pete Hanson, 50, a native of Flint, Mich., is the eighth volleyball coach for the Ohio State program. In 23 years at Ohio State, he has posted a 457-255 (.642) record. His college career began at Kellogg Community College in Michigan, which he attended for two years. At Kellogg, his team won the National Junior College Athletic Association Championships in 1976 and 1977. During the 1976 season, he was selected to the N.J.C.A.A. All-America Team. In 1977, he played on the United States team that competed against the Suntory Volleyball Club from Japan and toured across the United States, playing a team from the People's Republic of China.

Hanson then transferred to Ball State University, where he played during the 1978 and 1979 seasons, winning the Midwestern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association Championship in 1979 and finishing fourth in the NCAA Championships. He was named an All-MIVA selection both years and was selected as the Most Valuable Player for Ball State. After graduating in 1979 with a degree in natural resources and geology, he stayed at Ball State the next year, serving as an assistant coach.

In 1980, he became the assistant women's coach at the University of Wyoming. In 1981, the team was ranked 16th in the country and had a 20-9 record. In 1982, he became the Cowboys' head coach, posting a 14-12 record.

In 1985, his first year at the helm of the Buckeyes, Hanson led OSU to a 16-13 record and a second place finish in the MIVA. In 1986, his team finished first in the MIVA with a 25-15 overall record and placed fourth in the NCAA Championships. He led the Buckeyes to their second consecutive MIVA championship the next year and again placed fourth in the NCAA.

His success has continued over the years with many winning seasons. Last season, Ohio State won the MIVA regular season championship with a 10-2 mark and was 23-4 overall. The Buckeyes were ranked ninth nationally after reaching the

President's Corner

We say it often, but feedback through our recent strategic planning on-line survey told us that we don't say it enough. We need to recruit new members!

A Club our size is going to lose 10-12 percent of their membership each year through natural attrition; moving away, career changes, family pressures, etc. In our case, that's 20-25 members each year. To simply maintain our size, we must bring in that many new members each year.

New members bring new ideas, enthusiasm, skills, experiences and new perspectives that help keep our Club vibrant and strong.

So, why do people join Kiwanis? They join to make friends, to have fun, to meet new people, to make a difference in our community, to develop leadership skills, to feel a sense of belonging, to build their resume and to gain practical experience. Just ask yourself why you joined. It is probably for one or more of the reasons above.

Perhaps a better question to ask is "what keeps people from joining?" The number one reason is that no-one ever asked. Recruitment is nothing more than extending a personal invitation to someone you know. Another reason for not joining is a lack of awareness of Kiwanis and what we do. As a member, you need to stay informed by reading our weekly Bulletin and checking the website on a regular basis. Our schedule of luncheon speakers, upcoming events, committee rosters and a wealth of other information is always at your fingertips and always up-to-date. Being prepared to answer questions will help make recruiting easier.

Some people don't join for fear of failure or because they don't believe in the mission of Kiwanis. Others might feel they don't have the time or that they can be more productive doing other things. That's a matter of priorities and an understanding of the benefits they receive from being a part of our Club

The bottom line is that most people, when given the right information, when provided an opportunity to observe and when asked by someone they know and respect, will be excited to accept an invitation to join.

One of the requirements for becoming a distinguished Club member for the 2010-11 administrative year, is recruit at least 2 new members. Several people have already reached this goal and a number of others are halfway there. It's not too late. We still have four months to go. The new membership categories and our prorated dues structure make this the easiest time to bring in new members. So, let's recruit new members and continue to grow!

championship match of the MIVA Tournament. Hanson was named the MIVA coach of the Year for the seventh time.

In recent years Hanson has been honored with his selection to various regional and national coaching positions. He was an assistant coach for the 1986 National Sports Festival. The next summer he was the assistant coach at the Olympic Sports Festival for the gold medalist North team. Three of his players participated on teams in the festival. In 1988, he was an assistant coach at the National Elite Junior Training Camp, and the following year he worked as the head coach of the East squad at the Olympic Sports Festival. He was an assistant coach for the USA Men's "B" Team during the summers of 1994 and 1995. Hanson assisted the United States Men's Olympic team in Atlanta in 1996.

This year, the Buckeyes captured their first-ever NCAA Men's Volleyball Championship, becoming only one of three squads outside the West to do so, and finished the season as the No. 1 team in the AVCA Men's Division I-II Top-15 Poll for the first time in program history. OSU entered the NCAA Championship as the event's No. 3 seed, knocking off No. 2 seed Penn State, 3-1, in the tournament semifinals before securing a dramatic 3-2 victory over No. 4 seed UC Santa Barbara in the title tilt. Ohio State ended 2011 with a 26-6 overall record.

Just last week, Coach Hanson was selected as the 2011 AVCA Division I-II Men's National Coach of the Year.

West Virginia farm kid in the Marines ...

Dear Ma and Pa,

I am well. Hope you are. Tell Brother Walt and Brother Elmer the Marine Corps beats working for old man Minch by a mile. Tell them to join up quick before all of the places are filled. I was restless at first because you get to stay in bed till nearly 6 a.m. But I am getting so I like to sleep late. Tell Walt and Elmer all you do before breakfast is smooth your cot and shine some things. No hogs to slop, feed to pitch, mash to mix, wood to split, fire to lay. Practically nothing.

Men got to shave, but it is not so bad, there's warm water. Breakfast is strong on trimmings like fruit juice, cereal, eggs, bacon, etc., but kind of weak on chops, potatoes, ham, steak, fried eggplant, pie and other regular food, but tell Walt and Elmer you can always sit by the two city boys that live on coffee. Their food, plus yours, holds you until noon when you get fed again. It's no wonder these city boys can't walk much. We go on 'route marches,' which the platoon sergeant says are long walks to harden us. If he thinks so, it's not my place to tell him different. A 'route march' is about as far as to our mailbox at home. Then the city guys get sore feet and we all ride back in trucks.

The sergeant is like a school teacher. He nags a lot. The Captain is like the school board. Majors and colonels just ride around and frown. They don't bother you none.

This next will kill Walt and Elmer with laughing ... I keep getting medals for shooting. I don't know why. The bulls-eye is near as big as a chipmunk head and don't move, and it ain't shooting at you like the Higgett boys at home. All you got to do is lie there all comfortable and hit it. You don't even load your own cartridges. They come in boxes.

Then we have what they call hand-to-hand combat training. You get to wrestle with them city boys. I have to be real careful though, they break real easy. It ain't like fighting with that ole bull at home. I'm about the best they got in this except for that Tug Jordan from over in Warsaw. I only beat him once. He joined up the same time as me, but I'm only 5'6" and 130 pounds and he's 6'8" and near 300 pounds dry.

Be sure to tell Walt and Elmer to hurry up and join before other fellers get onto this setup and come stampeding in.

Your loving Daughter,
Alice
