Dr. Peter Cimbolic

President,
Ohio Dominican University

In the spring of 2010, the Ohio Dominican University Board of Trustees appointed Peter Cimbolic, Ph.D., as the 15th president of the institution. His official duties began July 1, 2010, and he was inaugurated in December 2010.

Before serving as ODU's president, Dr. Cimbolic was the provost and vice president for academic affairs and a tenured full professor of psychology at Marywood University in Scranton, Pa. Since 2008, Dr. Cimbolic also concurrently served as an adjunct professor of neuroscience at The Commonwealth Medical College in Scranton; and from 2003 to 2007, as provost and vice president of academic affairs, and as a tenured professor of psychology at Bellarmine University, an independent Catholic university in Louisville, Ky. From 1999 to 2003, he served as vice provost and dean of graduate studies for The Catholic University of America. Before that, he served as director of the counseling center at Catholic University for 18 years, and as a tenured professor in the Department of Psychology. Earlier in his career, Dr. Cimbolic served on the faculty and directed counseling centers at both the University of North Texas and the University of New Hampshire.

He holds a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Montclair State College; a master's degree in developmental psychology from Columbia University; and a Ph.D. in counseling psychology from the University of Missouri-Columbia. Dr. Cimbolic is an internationally known scholar who has published extensively and is the recipient of the District of Columbia College of Personnel Association Lifetime Research Award for his "outstanding contribution to knowledge in the profession." His areas of scholarly interest include sexual abuse, suicide and depression and psychopharmacology. He is a past member of the Association of American Universities and its Council of Graduate School Deans, and the Association of Graduate Schools in Catholic Colleges and Universities.

Final thoughts from Lisa ...

I can't believe a year has ended and my role as Club President is soon to be done as well. It is now my time to reflect on the years that have passed since being initially asked if I would consider this position until now. A lot of wonderful moments have taken place during this year and this would not have been possible if it weren't for all the great, dedicated Kiwanians in our Club!

We have made great strides toward our strategic plan as we begin heading into our centennial celebration. We continue to find new service projects to undertake, including our furniture building with the Furniture Bank, which is giving people a sense of pride in having a place to call 'home,' complete with beds, dressers and other furnishings. We have found ways to use the time and talent of our members and, at the same time, earn money for our Club with various photography projects led by Jim Shively, including the Father-Daughter dance and the Holiday party at the Athletic Club. Thanks to these projects, we were able to make money, which in turn was used to give deserving Kiwanis members awards and recognitions that we would have otherwise not been able to afford.

Once again, our fundraisers continue to result in incredibly successful and lucrative events for our Club. We are all asked to do our part and to contribute when we can, and we can be proud to see those efforts pay off. In addition, a special 'shout out' goes to Past President and Past Governor Ted Coons and his committee for all of their countless hours in raising money for the ELIMINATE Project. It is initiatives like this that make our members and our Club such a distinguished, as well as an 'outstanding,' Club.

The Trustees and Committee Chairs took a leap with me as I instituted some changes in how we make grants into the community and how our Trustee meetings were structured. Thank you all for being flexible in the way we do our work. I believe the time that went into the collaborating committees' efforts resulted in more meaningful and larger grants being approved, and that this is the first step in gaining better community recognition for all the good our Club does each year. The consent agendas allowed our busy professionals a little more evening flexibility by having physical Trustee meetings only every other month. It is my hope that this allowed our members the ability to use this time to their benefit, whether that means being able to put kids to bed, help with homework, stay late at work or find a little extra "me" time.

This past year, we have come into the computer age, with

A licensed psychologist, he is also a member of the Council of Health Service Providers of Psychology; the American Psychological Association; the Society of Psychotherapy Research; and the Society for the Advancement of Sexual Health. Dr. Cimboric has served on the editorial board of Sexual Addiction and Compulsivity, the Journal of Treatment and Prevention and on the editorial board of the Journal of Counseling Psychology of the American Psychological Association.

Active in his community, he has served on the boards of various civic, church and community organizations. In 2012, Dr. Cimboric was appointed to the Board of Trustees for The Catholic Foundation, Columbus, Ohio.

Dr. Cimboric is the father of five children: Mrs. Christie Baker of Marblehead, Mass.; Dr. Kathleen Gunthert of Silver Spring, Md.; Peter Cimboric of Baltimore, Md.; and Brian Cimboric of Odenton, Md. Dr. Cimboric is the proud grandfather of six grandchildren. He, his wife Kristi, and their son, Stephen, reside in Columbus.

'Shred-it' Day ...

Somewhere in the not-too-long-ago past, I recall hearing predictions that the computer was going to lead the way in us becoming a 'paperless society.' So much for that prediction ... we go through a tremendous amount of paper each year, so being able to recycle what we use is very important.

That is where WCMH TV-4 comes in, with their semi-annual 'Shred-It' Day. Consumers are able to have important and/or sensitive documents shredded, free of charge. All they have to do is get the documents to the 'Shred-it' Day site on the Ohio State University campus. Each car can bring up to five boxes of paper to be shredded.

This not only protects them from potential identify theft, but also allows thousands of pounds of paper to be recycled.

Kiwanis Club of Columbus will again be helping to fill three shifts, with 15 volunteers per shift, to help unload vehicles as they pull through the drop-off line. The shifts will begin at 7:30 a.m., 10 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., and each lasts two-and-a-half hours. Each shift you work earns you an attendance credit.

This is a great service project and a great event to invite a spouse, teenage child or potential member to come and participate in. Please contact Scott Doellinger at scottjd714@wowway.com to sign up for a shift(s).

an automated on-line lunch reservation system, an active Facebook page and now a portrait for our Foundation through The Columbus Foundation's website. None of these programs would be possible if we did not have such caring, devoted and knowledgeable members, with a special 'shout out' to Alice Hohl and our remarkable Club secretary, Past President Paul Bohlman. These members recognized the need and were willing to spearhead the efforts through completion. In addition, with our new portrait on PowerPhilanthropy through the Columbus Foundation's website, we now have better visibility and credit card accessibility to allow our members and the public to support our Foundation with charitable gifts. With the BIG GIVE opportunity, we were able to raise more than $20,000! I believe that this is just a start for our Club raising more money, and with new 'giving' opportunities, we open the possibility of doing even more for our community. The needs of the children in our community continue to grow and we need to be able to offer more grant money in order to help alleviate those challenges.

New members are our future. Special thanks go to Joyce Waters, our membership chair, and to all our members who have introduced a new member to our Club this year; because of them, we continue to grow. It truly is selfish if we do not invite our colleagues, business acquaintances and friends to come see what our Club is all about. I believe that this has been made especially easy due to the top-notch speakers and programs we bring each week, thanks to Past Presidents Fil Line and Char Collister and the Program Committee. Where else would you be able to spend an hour visiting with friends, networking and learning all about what is happening in our community?

It truly has been an honor to be called the President of Kiwanis Club of Columbus. I am excited about the years ahead; our Club has great Presidents lined up to lead. I have the utmost confidence that, under Kathleen Robert's leadership, our Club will be taken to a new, higher level of service, community recognition and overall Club strength. I know that she will be an incredible leader, and her passion will bleed into our membership and allow everyone to find their niche and unique qualities to be able to better serve our Club.

Thank you all for believing in me and in offering me this wonderful opportunity to serve. My hat goes off to all of you, in all that you are doing, and will do, to move our Club forward in serving our community and making the community better for the children. Each of you, in your efforts this year, has truly brought me happiness, and I am proud to be able to say I am a member of this great Club. My last Happy Dollar goes to all of you, our Club members, who want to make our community a better place! I have learned so much and feel that I have a better appreciation and understanding of what it takes to truly be the best service club in Columbus, thanks to all of you. It is only by working together that we can change this community, one child at a time. Thank you

Dues payment ...

The deadline, September 30, is almost here for paying your annual (October 1, 2013 through September 30, 2014) membership dues. If you have not yet submitted your payment, please make sure you bring it with you to this Monday's meeting.

If your dues are not received by September 30, and/or arrangements have not been made if there is a delay, your name will be dropped from the roster of our Club, and you will be assessed a $25 processing fee to be added back on.

So, please get your payment in. If there is a problem, please let Secretary Paul Bohlman know, so that he can make any necessary arrangements to accommodate your situation.

Committees are re-forming ...

As we approach the start of the new administrative year (October 1), each of our standing committees is in the process of re-forming. Many of the committees will be under the leadership of a new chair, while some will benefit from the return of a veteran.

This is the time for each of our members to assess where they want to fit in during this administrative year. Do you stay active on the same committee(s) you were involved with last year, while joining one or two new ones, or do you do a complete shift and get involved in totally new aspects of the Club?

The committees are listed on the Club website, and you can add or delete yourself from any of the committees, at any time, by editing your personal profile. Or, give the committee chair a call and let him/her know that you are interested.

Our Club is structured around our committees. This is where the real work of Kiwanis is done. It is where the planning, organizing, leadership opportunities and fellowship really occur. The number of committees you get involved with is your decision, based on interest and available time and schedule. Join, or re-join, a committee today!

President's Party set ...

As the end of the Lisa Jolley presidential year approaches, it is time to reminisce about, reflect on and celebrate the Club's many accomplishments under her steady leadership. What better way to do that than a formal dinner party and a musical roast?

Mark your calendars for this fun-filled evening, scheduled for Friday, November 1, at Scioto Country Club. It is a great opportunity for a wonderful night out with your spouse or special someone.

Dan McCormick, along with the 'Not-So-Prime-Time Players,' has been working on his whimsically musical tribute for several months. There's no telling what he has in store for our unsuspecting and highly vulnerable outgoing Club President. Just come ready to enjoy a great meal, outstanding fellowship, a great show and a barrel of laughs. More details regarding ticket sales, menu selection, times and dress will be available soon.

When it is obvious that the goals cannot be reached, don't adjust the goals, adjust the action steps.
Confucius
