

Kiwanis Club of Columbus

Recent Additions

Membership growth is an important element of any strong organization. It is the sign of a solid organization, as they reach out and share the ideals, goals, programs and projects of their club with like minded individuals. New members help maintain enthusiasm and bring new and exciting ideas. The old is constantly giving way to the new, as we pass the gavels of leadership and community service on to those who will follow in the footsteps of those who have already led. In this way, we assure the continuity and future success of our Club.

The following is a list of those active Club members who have joined our ranks the past few years. These are the future stewards of the Kiwanis Club of Columbus.
